CARDINAL SATOLLI TO GO TO ROME.

Cannot Get the Red Hat at the Next Consistory as He Will Have to Remain Here Until His Successor Arrives.

By Julius Chambers.

Washington, June 15 .- Cardinal Satolli as been relieved and his successor appointid. Private advices received in this city from Rome are to the effect that Mgr. Falconio, Titular Archbishop of Acerenja, will succeed Cardinal Satolli as Apostolic Delegate to the United States at an early date.

A visit to the Cardinal's house to-night elicited the information that Satolli will not be present in Rome at the consistory June 25. He will wait until the next function of the kind to receive the hat from the Pope. Nothing was known there regarding the appointment of his successor, but the indications are that Satolli will Falconio arrives.

As this Archbishop's name has not been mentioned in this connection either in Europe or in the United States, his appointment comes as a complete surprise. The best opinion indicates that the change will be announced at the Consistory in Rome on the 25th, at which time Satolli will cease to be Papal Ablegate.

We received a summons to the Criminal Court a week ago, and were there to tell our story. Then the case was continued. Since then we have heard nothing of it. If we had known it was coming up we would have been there."

Mr. Trowbridge corroborated the statement that no summons had been received to appear before the Grand Jury.
"There is something wrong downtown when cases can be handled in such a way," said Acting Captain Vredenburgh. "It hardly seems posible that the case could be dismissed without the Trowbridges being given a hearing. Still, Brock said he could hush the matter up and he seems to have succeeded partially.
